CONTEMPORARY SERVICE

4175 Lexington Road • Athens, Georgia

Sunday, January 29, 2012

Guests, Welcome to Our Church! If you are a first time guest we are honored that you have chosen to visit us and hope to see you back with us soon. Please fill out the visitor strip in the pew and place in the offering plate.

Worship Folders for children are available in the sanctuary center aisle by the sound booth. They contain worship bulletins and activities to keep children engaged during the service. Please return the folders after the service.

ANNOUNCEMENTS:

Are you interested in joining Tuckston? Have you wondered if this is the church for you? On Sunday, February 12, there will be a class called Inquiring Into Belonging. You can learn about Tuckston. What we believe; the history and structure of the church. You can decide if it may be time to join or wait until another time. You do not have to join if you attend. The class will be right after the 11:00 worship service. It will start with lunch (on us) followed by a class session taught by our Pastor. There will be child care provided for those who need it. You can sign up by contacting the church office or using the form available at worship.

Each Sunday night Harbor includes a meal for our youth and Wesley leaders. If your small group or Sunday school class would like to bless our youth and their college leaders with a meal, or the funds to purchase one, please contact Jeni Pringle at 706-215-5010.

Seniors Fun and Games, Thursday, Feb. 2nd at 1:30pm in the Fellowship Hall.

How full is your love tank?

The Soul Inspiration class (formerly Lighthouse) is beginning a new study on The 5 Love Languages by Gary Chapman just in time for Valentines.

Beginning Sunday, Jan 29 at 11:00am in the upstairs room (AE231), we will embark on a 12-week journey to understand how to communicate better with our spouses.

The Soul Inspiration class is predominantly made up of parents of young children, and we welcome you to come and share your lives with us each week as we encourage each other and allow God to inspire our souls.

Small Group Life on Wednesday Nights Starting in February

The Screwtape Letters* by C. S. Lewis. The word is out, and we were not supposed to know about it—the word on the art of temptation. If you were challenged by Dr. Mooneyhan’s sermon series on temptation, you will definitely want to consider joining this short term small group study of C. S. Lewis’ The Screwtape Letters, lead by Nancy Knapp, who is a C. S. Lewis enthusiast. Very insightful study that will increase your understanding of our spiritual lives while challenging you to a closer walk with Christ. Wednesday Nights at 6:30 PM in room C 151 (Co-Workers) beginning February 1.

The Teaching of the Twelve: Believing & practicing the primitive Christianity of the ancient Didache community* by Tony Jones.

How did the first Christians practice their faith? The Didache, an early handbook of an anonymous Christian community, “is the most important book you’ve never heard of,” says Tony Jones, the theologian-in-residence at Solomon’s Porch in Minnesota. Likely written before many of the New Testament books, this little-known text can enlighten how we Christians do and live church today. . Taught by Rev. John Turlington. Wednesday Nights at 6:30 PM in room AE134

Youth L.I.F.E. Group & Youth Parents L.I.F.E. Group. We are starting something new for youth and for their parents on Wednesday nights. Starting February 1st, we’ll kick off two new L.I.F.E. groups. The first will be a discussion-based group for students that will cover major topics like conflict, family, relationships, texting and driving, etc. The second group will be a parent only group where parents can come together to discuss major issues in their lives and the lives of their children. Wednesday evenings at 6:30 PM in rooms FLC 115 and FLC 114 respectively—gym classrooms.
